my Grandfather

When was Billy Green's birthday?
His birthday was on November 14, 1911 and he was born in Grimsby, Lincolnshire, England. Mary Green's birthday was on June 1897 and she was born in the vicinity of Churchill, Manitoba. His daughter, Emily Angalik was born in Eakimo Point, N.W.T. March 6, 1936 and her sister Irene Kabutsiak was born in Churchill, Manitoba on February 26, 1938.

When did he get married?
He got married in April 1934 with Mary Kasuratsiak Oiyuk and had two girls, their names were Emily Edith Angalik and Irene Elizabeth, now known as Irene Kabutsiak.

What was his job?
He was working in a farm for A.J. Arnold in Bluewater, Manitoba. He then became an apprentice clerk at Hudson's Bay company. He then became a self-employed "Trapper" from 1935-38 trapping in the Northwest Territory. On August 1938 he signed to join the U.S.A. in Winnipeg, Manitoba. He joined the army when war broke out.

Why did I choose this topic about my great grandfather?
I picked this topic because my great grandfather died with honor by fighting for his country. He believed in his country. I was very proud of him when I first heard that he had saved his country.

How was he killed?
He was killed in World War 2, during air operations in December 2, 1943 over Berlin, Germany.

What did he enjoy doing during his spare time?
He enjoyed playing football, baseball and boxing. He was a good navigator long time ago.
